Dear Harold,

A point Sabia inadvertantly makes is that "The Cover-Up" rests on a social class basis. "Politics to The World of Ia gratin" always takes a lower priority to Class. The Linkers, The Social Registers, Halvorsen, Simpson, Batchelor and Bartlett - "What is politics to us?" Of one doesn't know the goings on of "Hour" circles things on High St., well ----- "Dick Holmes is a ha Posey Boy". "That fellow Nixon got Dick in trouble". "Weisberg is not our kind. He and that type can't us".

So, I was told and

Serving the Four County Quinte Region of Eastern Ontario

it was indeed true from that point of view. Loyalty to Class. "To serve us to rule!" A well chosen motto for Gratien! For one to stay in The Club, dissent must remain inside the dividing.

My own efforts removed my name from the Social Register and hurt me in career areas. I didn't and don't care.

To the worshippers of "le Gratin", one who assumes this attitude is simply "vicious".

Thus, all the evidence is - for them - irrelevant. Very striking parallels between The Zola and Arwood Cases in terms of "la Haute". To me you're an authentic hero; an investigative genius, a great mom.

They can't take the Truth now. Your work is an act of treason. It mirrors the inner rot and moral exhaustion of a decadent elite, too proud to confront

Weak, too weak to change, too arrogant to share.

How absurd I was to believe "evidence" would change minds. Or media attention. Or polls.

We're weakened by a
"smoking gun" in a holocaust!
